

Spirit of winter celebrated at DPS

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

BATHINDA, DECEMBER 25

Delhi Public School organised 'Winter Carnival' to celebrate the spirit of winter. Group Captain, Indian Air force, K Nachiketa, who is also a recipient of Vayu Sewa Medal, was the chief guest on the occasion.

The guest of honour was Prasanthi Nachiketa. Students and staff member of various playway schools, including Little Angels, Pushpa Vatika, SSD Bal Gopal, participated in the event. The school choir and orchestra presented melodious jingles and Christmas songs.

Various game stalls were also put up, along with stalls of renowned eateries, from and outside Bathinda. Various competitions, including fancy dress, mummy-baby and painting, were also organised to entertain the audience.

A stall exhibiting the Punjabi culture was also put up to showcase Punjabi Virsa. The highlights of the show were a group dance by the children of Smile Foundation, camel ride, race and tambola.

Students show their certificates; and (below) children perform during Winter Carnival organised at Delhi Public School in Bathinda. TRIBUNE PHOTOS

